OSC representatives,

I am attempting to pursue this matter in two courts. One in Belize, and one in Nicaragua and am finding intentional road blocks in regards to these matters. Lawyers who suddenly go silent, who are not properly submitting paperwork to delay things, who suddenly start evading emails, and who will have to be reported to their respective bars.

This said, I am beginning to see a pattern here between all respective jurisdictions, including complacency within the US government when ECI Developments securities submission was rejected and closed, and Belize knowing this agency has been operating fraudulently for the last 20 years, and now I have submitted indisputable evidence of foreign securities evasion to the Canadian OSC and haven't heard anything in regards to these matters while this company is still selling illegal securities to Canadians.

Can the OSC inform me of the steps being taken to deal with this clear racketeering ring stealing money from Canadians while the Canadian government is seemingly silent on the matter?

Best regards,
Mark Lepore
